

Essay II--Citizen Kane

Due Dates and Values

- Rough draft due on 3/24/21 for 33 points (completion only) to d2l by 4:30 P.M.
- Final draft due 3/31/21 on for 200 points by 4:30 P.M.
- Please submit the rough draft and final draft through d2l.

Overview and Essay Topic

- The film Citizen Kane is considered to be the greatest film of all time.
- You will decide whether you agree or disagree, but the support you provide must come from research.
- Formal topic: Does Citizen Kane deserve the number one ranking on the AFI film list?

Structure

- Paragraph One: Intro with thesis.
- Paragraph two: Summary of film with citations. Paraphrasing.
- Paragraph three: Summary of The Battle Over Citizen Kane. This sets a context for the essay.
- Paragraph four: Source 1 from EBSCO that supports your position.
- Paragraph five: Source 2 from EBSCO that provides the opposing point of view.
- Paragraph six: Source 3 from EBSCO that supports your position.

- Paragraph seven: Conclusion.

Requirements

- Works Cited page.
- Double-spacing.
- 12 Point, Times New Roman font.

Notes

- I would like you to do the leg work on the citations.
- We use MLA in English courses.
- Remember: research must support your assertions.
- Link for The Battle Over Citizen Kane:

https://archive.org/details/The_Battle_Over_Citizen_Kane_KCET_PBS_1996-01